THE TALENT UPSET ON EXTINGUISHER.

PROHIBITIVE FAVORITE BEATEN

Cochrane Jocked Up for Rad Ride, But Explains Satisfactority-Only One Choice in Six Races at Benning.

There was a marked falling off in the to gold and threatening weather. The tacing was mainly remarkable for the defeat of the favorities, only one winning out of the six races on the card. As this winning favorite happened to be in the last race of the day, and at a very short price in the betting, it is extremely doubtful if the talent had enough money left to win back their loss as on the previous races.

The greatest upact of the day, and indeed of the entire meeting, was the deteat of Extinguisher in the fourth race. Extinguisher went to the post at the prohibitive odds of I to 5. It was un event for isco-year-olds at six furiones, in which eight originally were carded to start. The revent performances of Extinguisher frightened out several of these, leaving #### only four to go to the post. Extinguisher's Bud Race.

The start was good, all gettine off in a line. In the early part of the race, Extinguisher seem to fall our of it, and was larging behind his field. He made up a lor of ground on the turn, and joined his field and seemed to be running easy.

On the turn for home, it looked as though Cochrana, who had the mount. was taking him very wide. The ride looked rather peculiar, as he again loss ground. In the run home, he came through, but could never make up what he had lost, and was beaten at the wire a head by Colonel Bill.

Cochrane was called mio the stand, and asked by the stewards why he had taken his borse to the outside. His reply was that while he had put up a had ride, he had ridden strictly to orders. He said that he was corried wide on the stretch by Blanche Herman, losing several lengths, that he could not make up.

Cochrane Is Exonerated.

He was corroborated in his statement by the patrol judge. Of course, that let him out, exonerating him from all

What effect the interference had on the race is hard to say. Colored Bill, the winner, was also a sufferer by it, and his race sas a good one. The time, 1:15, was the fastest of the meeting for two-year-old and within a fifth of a second of the track
